

Come One and All!

FACEBOOK 101:

TUMC Trekkers are please to sponsor a beginner's class on Facebook.
Class is opened to all ages.

Curious about what your long lost cousin ate for lunch or about your high school sweetheart? Join Chris Natland and Jolin Gard as they assist you in the graceful art of Social Networking. Learn how to set-up a Facebook account, understand Facebook terminology, use chat and include pictures. See how Facebook will help you keep in touch with your family, connect with old lost friends and stay current with what is happening in your church and community. The class is designed to help even the most COMPUTER illiterate person work with Facebook. Bring along your own laptop or we will have a few computers for you to use for a real hands-on learning opportunity.

WHEN: March 24 at 10:00am to noon with lunch to follow. WHERE: Tigard United Methodist Church in Rooms M1 and M2. Pack a brown bag lunch as we will share a meal and continued discussions after the class. Beverages and dessert will be provided. REGISTER: By March 21st by contacting Jolin at jolingard7366@hotmail.com or picking up a form from the Trekkers bulletin board located in the church lobby. Forms may be dropped off in the Trekker mailbox located in the church office. Cost: Free. Childcare will be provided.
